EAGLE NEWS

The Point Aquarius eagles have returned once again and are sitting on eggs. However, they have built a new nest on Corvus. I guess they decided not to take a chance using the old nest damaged by last spring's heavy rain.

POA BLOG

It's a New Year, a new start. A clear vision backed by definite plans gives you a tremendous feeling of confidence and personal power.

Remember, if you pay your maintenance fee by January 31, you will receive a $120 discount.

Please let the office know if you no longer wish to keep your dry storage space. If you have plans of selling your property and you have a boat slip, please notify the office of your plans for the boat slip. We need to now who your are transferring the boat slip to.

If you call the POA office, please stay on the line until you hear the beep. We are having trouble with the answering machine so when you call you will hear several different announcements before you hear the beep. We will get your message if you leave one. We hope to have the problem resolved soon. Please e-mail Janis at p o i n t a q u a r i u s @ c o n s o l i d a t e . n e t for any questions or concerns.

Please remember that all pets belong on a leash if they are outside and not in a fenced back yard. If your pet defecates on someone's property or in the common area you are to pick it up and dispose of it at your home. Be respectful of your neighbors. State the new year by doing the right thing and making the right decisions. Life is way too short to live it making enemies and being unhappy. Make every day of the New Year be filled with happiness for you and your family!

THOUGHTS FOR THE NEW YEAR

New Year's eve is like every other night; there is no pause in the march of the universe, no breathless moment of silence among created things that the passage of another twelve months may be notes; and yet no man has quite the same thoughts this evening that come with the coming of darkness on other nights.
